

ADL Supplier Code of Conduct

(Axiata Digital Labs (Private) Limited and PT Axiata Digital Labs Indonesia are collectively referred to as ADL)

ADL is strongly committed to observing the highest ethical standards in all its procurement activities. As such, this Axiata Digital Labs Supplier Code of Conduct ("Code") has been prepared to provide a clear statement of ADL's expectation from Suppliers in all procurement dealings, ensuring that internationally recognised procurement ethics are followed. Transparency and accountability should be strictly adhered to in all procurement activities. This Code establishes the standards required for conducting business with ADL. Our goal is to work with our Suppliers to ensure full compliance with these principles. These requirements set out the minimum levels of compliance required of ADL's Suppliers. As a Supplier, you are encouraged to exceed the requirements wherever possible. We will consider these principles in our selection of Suppliers and will actively monitor Suppliers' compliance.

ADL may amend and add to this Code at any time and from time to time. Supplier and Supplier Representatives are bound by such amendments and additions published from time to time and accessible at <https://www.axiatadigitallabs.com/supplier-code-of-conduct/>. References to this Code shall be deemed to include such amendments and additions. Supplier shall ensure that Supplier Representatives comply with this Code.

1. APPLICABILITY OF THE CODE

This Code shall apply to all:

- (i) counterparties including suppliers, contractors, consultants, dealers, distributors, vendors, service providers, business partners, channel partners, joint venture partners (individually and/or collectively "Counterparties");
- (ii) prospective Counterparties (individually and/or collectively "Prospective Counterparties");
- (iii) parents or subsidiaries of the Counterparties or Prospective Counterparties (individually and/or collectively "Related Corporations"); and
- (iv) the respective personnel, officers, directors, representatives, agents and contractors of, and any other entities acting on behalf of, the Counterparties or Prospective Counterparties (individually and/or collectively "Representatives").

Counterparties and Prospective Counterparties are hereinafter individually and/or collectively referred to as "Suppliers" and Related Corporations and Representatives are hereinafter individually and/or collectively referred to as "Supplier Representatives".

Suppliers shall, and shall cause Supplier Representatives to, ensure this Code and other relevant information are communicated throughout their organization and made available to their respective employees in a comprehensible language(s) of its employees and supervisors.

Suppliers' and the Supplier Representatives' acknowledgement of this Code is a pre-requisite in every ADL contract for supply. Through the acceptance of a Purchase Order and/or signing of contract, which make reference to the Code, the Supplier commits that it shall adhere to and conduct itself in a manner consistent with the provisions contained in this Code.

2. BUSINESS PRACTICES

2.1 Laws, Including Regulations and Other Legal Requirements

Suppliers shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations in all jurisdictions where they conduct business. Where the requirements under applicable laws or regulations differ or are in conflict with this Code, the Supplier shall comply with the highest standard consistent with applicable laws or regulations.

Suppliers are also expected to ensure it has obtained all necessary regulatory approvals to conduct its business in the relevant jurisdictions. This includes any licenses, permits, approvals, permissions granted by local regulators and federal authorities.

2.2 Policy on Bribery and Corruption

ADL expects all Suppliers and companies seeking to sell goods or services to conduct their business in accordance with the highest ethical standards. ADL is committed to conducting business with Zero Tolerance Policy against all forms of bribery and corruption and expects its Suppliers to do the same. In this regard, Suppliers shall comply with ADL's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy, a copy of which can be accessed at <https://www.axiatadigitallabs.com/anti-bribery-anti-corruption-policy/>

Suppliers shall never offer a bribe or kickback in any form to ADL employees, their families or nominees, or engage in unethical or unacceptable business practices in order to obtain or maintain ADL's business. Suppliers are prohibited to directly or indirectly offer, promise, give, solicit or accept or agree to accept or attempt to obtain anything that might be regarded as a facilitation payment in any form. Suppliers shall never improperly influence a Public/Government Official and PEPs to seek or retain business advantage for and/or on behalf of ADL and will make committed efforts to transact in a fair and transparent manner. Suppliers must report to ADL if any ADL employees or business associates requests any such incentive. During a bid or evaluation process, Suppliers should not entertain nor seek to influence ADL employees involved in the bid or evaluation, or their families, through gifts, payments, favours, services or other benefits that will or could influence any business decision or that create the appearance of influencing any business decision.

ADL has adopted a "No Gift" Policy, whereby all its stakeholders¹ as well as their family members, who are acting for, and on behalf of ADL, directly or indirectly, are prohibited from giving or accepting gifts to avoid conflict of interest (actual or perceived) as a gift can be seen as a bribe that may negatively impact ADL's reputation or be in violation of the ABAC Policy as well as laws and regulations. Gifts in the form of cash or cash equivalent is prohibited. Any gifts offered, given or received (in exceptional circumstances) shall be in compliance with the law, ADL's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy, and other relevant policies and procedures. If any gifts are offered, given and received, employees are required to declare and/or get prior approval. Gifts should not be offered or given to ADL employees or their relatives and families, if it could reasonably give the appearance of influencing the business relationship with ADL or any business decision arising out of the business relationship. For the avoidance of doubt, gift is defined to include all forms of entertainment, travel and hospitalitys, donations and sponsorships.

2.3 Position on Conflict of Interest

Supplier must report to ADL's Head of Procurement in writing if any director or employee of ADL and/or relatives of director or employee of ADL are employees, partners, directors, or shareholders (other than publicly traded securities) of the Supplier. Relatives of an ADL director or employee comprise of the director's or employee's spouse, parents, children, brothers or sisters, or spouse of child, brother and sister. It is ADL's policy that a director or employee declares any interests that they or their relatives, directly or indirectly, have in a bid or a Supplier.

2.4 Anti-Competitive Conduct

Suppliers shall comply to competition legislation and regulations where applicable and not engage in anti-competitive conduct such as but not limited to collusive behaviour, tying or linking arrangements, misuse of market power and refusal to supply.

ADL expect its Suppliers to adhere to all anti-trust laws and regulations to ensure a free and open marketplace. Suppliers must not propose, or enter into, any agreements with a competitor to fix or stabilize pricing, allocate customers, territories, products or markets, rig bids or collude on bid quotes, or boycott a competitor or customers.

2.5 Dealing with Public or Government Officials and Politically Exposed Persons (PEP)

ADL strives to build transparent and fair relationships with Public or Government Officials (including regulators) and PEP. PEP is defined as a person entrusted with a local or foreign country's public or governmental function. ADL suppliers, employees and/or their representatives shall comply with the ADL's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy and all applicable laws and regulations in all dealings or interactions with Public or Government Officials (including regulators) and PEP.

ADL expects the conduct of Suppliers or Supplier Representatives who perform tasks and works for ADL to be above board. Any misrepresentation, illegal or unethical conduct shall be regarded as breach of this code of conduct.
